

The Scituate Conservation Commission

cordially invites you to its

6th Annual Meeting

Tuesday, March 11, 2008
7 P.M. – 9 P.M.
Chopmist Hill Center
Chopmist Hill Road (Rte. 102)
North Scituate, RI

Featuring:

- Conservation – The Year in Review
- The 2008 Alice M. Howland Conservation Award
- A brief presentation by Chris Modisette about the fiscal benefits of land conservation

And...

“Historic Cemeteries: Outdoor Museums” a slide presentation by Karin Sprague, a professional stone carver and designer of hand carved memorials, in which she shares her passion for and knowledge of historic cemeteries. As a Scituate resident, Ms. Sprague is keenly aware of the significance of historic cemeteries in our town and will talk about the conservation of these “outdoor museums” as well as her study of the stories the headstones have to tell.

Please join us.

This program is free and open to the public.

Please call Cheryl Dexter at 647-5678 or

Ruth Strach at 934-2277 for more information.

Your RSVP... for planning purposes only... would be helpful.

Scituate Conservation Commission

P.O. Box 328
North Scituate, Rhode Island 02857
Attn: Ruth Strach, Vice Chair
Phone (401) 934-2277